Te-Whare-Mātāmuatanga-o-IO-Aotearoha-Kāwanatanga

[Unincorporated Charitable Trust, Non-Government Foundation]

1st July 2019

These private natural-men/womb-men, hereby form a private foundation being a Non-Government-Foundation (NGF), not-for-profit, tax-exempt, hue-manitarian, philanthropic, unincorporated community service, adopting these Articles of Association effective this day as scribed below in the year 2019AD, and do hereby certify:

Article One - Name

The name of the private Foundation is Te-Whare-Mātāmuatanga-o-IO-Aotearoha-Kāwanatanga, herein after referred to as "The Foundation".

Article Two – Founder(s)

The founding Principal Participant(s) of the foundation is a private Suverän natural-man commonly known as "Ariki-nui-Kawenata :Marsich-crown:®™®", also known as Gavin-John :Marsich:®™®". The initial principal office for the foundation is located on the Far North West Coast of the land mass commonly known as Aotearoa, [New Zealand].

Article Three - Purpose

This Foundation operates privately as a not-for-profit (nfp), tax exempt, unincorporated Non-Government Foundation (NGF) providing hue-manitarian, philanthropic, charitable, community-based services and is established to foster and support local community. This includes such purposes as the giving and receiving of financial and other resources and contributions between the Foundation Associates & Participant(s).

'Hue-manitarian' and 'philanthropic' means concerned with or seeking to promote hue-man welfare; generous and benevolent.

'Charitable trust' means an irrevocable trust established for charitable purposes. In some jurisdictions, it is a more specific term than "charitable organization". A charitable trust enjoys varying degrees of tax benefits in most countries and also generates goodwill.

'Not-for-profit' (nfp) means any profits or surpluses generated by the Foundation after it has met all its operating expenses, must be used to further its purposes and may not be distributed to Participant(s) or any other people, both during its operation or in the event of its dissolution.

'Tax-exempt' means exempt and free from all forms of financial limitations and imposts by way of, taxation, usury, stamp or other duties, levies, gst taxation, and any other imposts by government administrators, or other third-party interlopers, or directive entities, either present or future.

'Community-based service' means any service or program providing opportunities for the majority of an individual's time to be spent in community participation or integration.

'Non-Government-foundation' (NGF) means a foundation or entity that is by no way registered or licensed with any government or state agency. Not registered with any Corporation Government.

'Association' meaning a group of people organized for a joint purpose.

'Participant(s)' means private natural men and womb-men who are committed to the purpose of the foundation and its associates. The foundation will seek to enjoy safe harbour and peaceful enjoyment, while providing a service at peace with the broader community, to further its spiritual work. The primary purpose and objectives of the Foundation are to provide benevolent and philanthropic services to the community, and to fund, facilitate, implement, and operate sustainable projects. The purpose of the Foundation applies equally to all hue-manity and the general public globally, irrespective of colour, caste, nationality, race, creed, sect, religion or gender.

‘Sovereign Rites’ means the natural rites of a Suverän sentient private man or womb-man, their Divine attributes, to love, to be free, to independence, to autarky, to privacy, to remain silent or to speak, to give and to receive, to be responsible, to apply their natural energy, to think and have thought, to live life, to apply effort and to work, to make decisions, to increase their capacity, all rites which are un-liable, imprescriptible and unlegislable, and to expressly include their Private Sovereign de jure rites in LORE, above Laws of maxim, Holy Scriptures written on stone or clay tablets. Fixed and unmoveable Laws. Sovereignty LORE is Supreme Authority and is not subject to military law, for it is the author and source of man-made political law of legal maxim. There can be no limitation to the sovereign rites of hue-manity.

‘LORE’ means universal divine energy manifestation of an etheric spiritual nature. Above Laws of maxim, holy scriptures written on stone. NOT legal maxim, draconian color of law, Roman man-made political statutes, acts, policies, military uniform commercial codes, rules, regulations, legislation.

‘As in all great critical periods in hue-man history, hue-manity is now going through a spiritual rebirth. Great forces of unconsciousness are afoot and seen to be dominant, but constructive and creative forces that will redeem hue-manity are also being released through several channels. Although the working of these forces of light is chiefly silent, they are eventually bound to bring about those transformations that will make the further spiritual advance of hue-manity safe and steady. It is all part of the divine plan, which is to give to the hungry and weary world a fresh dispensation of the eternal and only Truth.’

The primary purpose of the Foundation is to fund, facilitate, implement, and operate projects and enterprises that are sustainable in the atmosphere and environment on earth. The projects and enterprises are particularly to support, sustain and benefit the ‘Participant(s)’ in such projects and enterprises, and also communities globally whereby a percentage of contribution back to fellow man is committed.

‘In the light of the truth of the unity of life’, to encourage, promote, and foster ‘cooperative and harmonious action to become natural and inevitable, and hence the chief purpose’ is to encourage, promote, foster and support ‘the rebuilding of hue-manity and to dispel the spiritual ignorance that envelopes hue-manity.’ Spiritual experience is not accessible to the limited hue-man intellect until the intellect transcends its limits and is illuminated by direct realization of the Infinite.

This Foundations purpose applies equally to all hue-manity, irrespective of colour, caste, nationally, race, creed, sect, religion or gender.

Article Four - Principal Participant(s)

The Founding and Principal Participant(s) may appoint an additional Principal Participant(s) at their discretion. Initially the Founding Principal Participant(s) will have the full discretion and power to determine all the activities, enterprises and operations of the Foundation. Ultimately the Foundations activities and operation will be guided entirely at the discretion of the two Principal Participant(s).

The Principal Participant(s) in making all their decisions shall act jointly in harmony and Unanimous agreement, achieving unanimity in accord with all their decisions and actions, without competition or rivalry, nor compromising their purpose, objectives and focus, to achieve harmony and peace in all their determinations. Principal Participant(s) may retire at their personal discretion.

The nomination and appointment of the successors to the principal Participant(s) shall be made by the then current principal Participant(s) upon the proposed retirement of a Participant(s). The principal Participant(s) are empowered to both appoint and replace people who are to fulfil roles within the foundational structure of the foundation and its activities, enterprises and operation, and give such people authority to act to fulfil those roles.

Any principal Participant(s) may with the written consent of all the other principal Participant(s), appoint a new Participant(s) to be their alternate principal Participant(s). Any such appointment shall only have effect during such periods of time when the particular principal Participant(s) may be absent or unable to fulfil his/her duties. The other principal Participant(s) has the power to revoke or alter, in writing, such alternate principal Participant(s) appointment at any time. All these private foundations activities and the foundation assets will be kept private and confidential. The principal Participant(s) shall not be bound to disclosure to any other entity, person or government administrator, any information about the foundation or its activities, without prejudice to any of the Participant(s) rites under any nation state or government legislated law. The principal Participant(s) will minute and record any change of the principal Participant(s) with the foundation. A copy of the meeting minutes confirming such changes to the principal Participant(s) may be outlined by email.

Article Five - Funding and Resourcing

The Foundation will be resourced and funded by its Participant(s) and through the efforts and endeavours of its Participant(s), volunteers, contractors and other foundations in covenant support and tithe. The foundation shall also be self-funding through its projects and enterprises by its Associates. In addition, funding and resourcing may be sourced through investments and borrowing contributions, from other foundations and philanthropic entities.

The principal Participant(s) are hereby authorised to administer the foundations contributions, monies and investments, which may include bank deposits, earnings, revenues, surpluses, accretions, transfers, loans, borrowings, and all funds and monies, including tangible and intangible gifts, koha, donations, received by or paid to the principal Participant(s) for and on behalf of the foundation. The accumulation of all these assets and resources are herein referred to as the 'Foundation Assets'.

The principal Participant(s) will keep the Foundation Assets, entirely separate and distinct from any other funds and nothing shall cause the principal Participant(s) to join the Foundation Assets or any part of them, with any other assets or funds of another entity and in particular funds which may be the subject or property of any natural person and have the sole discretion and responsibility to determine all the activities, enterprises and operation of the foundation. They may exercise any of the following responsibilities in order to progress the purposes of the foundation referred to in Article Three:

Article Six - Principal Participant(s) Responsibilities

The Principal Participant(s) will have the sole discretion and responsibility to determine all the activities, enterprises and operations of the Foundation. They may exercise any of the following responsibilities in order to further the Purpose of the Foundation referred to in Article 3:

- a) to apply and invest all moneys at any time, forming part of the Foundation Assets in any such investments, whether involving liability or not or upon personal credit with or without security and upon such terms and conditions that are agreed and accepted, at the absolute discretion of the Principal Participant(s).
- b) to raise funds. In exercising this power, the Principal Participant(s) may undertake any trading activity acceptable herein.
- c) to give any guarantee for payment of money or the performance of any contract or covenant, obligation or undertaking.

- d) to give effectual receipts and discharges for any money received into the Foundation Assets by the Principal Participant(s) on behalf of the Foundation or otherwise relating to any of the acts, matters and things provided for in these Articles of Association.
- e) to permit any Foundation Assets to be held or recorded in the name of any Principal Participant(s) or their nominee and to deposit securities, deeds and other documents belonging or related to the Foundation with any bank or financial institution, to acquire, sell, lease or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Foundation Assets.
- f) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Foundation as security for repayment of the money borrowed.
- g) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire property and to maintain and equip it for use.
- h) to be authorized or empowered to pay reasonable and appropriate compensation and provide sustenance for all people who render services to the Foundation or its enterprises, whether they be members, Participant(s), volunteers or contractors. Such compensation must be paid undiminished with no portion or taxes withheld, other than tithe obligations.
- i) to appoint any and all necessary entities, or natural men and womb-men, as Members, Participant(s), volunteers, contractors, coordinators and advisors.
- j) to enter into joint ventures, associations, partnerships, equity participation and shareholdings or any other similar association, on behalf of the Foundation.
- k) to permit any Principal Participant(s), to hold on behalf of the Foundation, any registered patent, trademark, registration, asset or part of the Foundation Assets or any other listing or item.
- l) to take any other action that is necessary or desirable in the opinion of the Principal Participant(s) for the achievement of the Purposes of the Foundation.
- m) to maintain the Private Foundation, nfp, tax-exempt and NGF status of the Foundation.
- n) to keep private and confidential, to the degree appropriate, the Foundations Assets and Foundations affairs.

Article Seven - Duty of Care, Responsibility, Liability & Indemnity

When exercising any responsibilities given within these Articles of Association and in administering or managing the Foundation, or the Foundation of Assets, each of the principal Participant(s) accepts the following conditions:

Duty of Care and Responsibility; When exercising any power given by these Articles of Association and in administering or managing the Foundation, the principal Participant(s) are to use the level of care and skill that is reasonable in the circumstances, taking into consideration any special knowledge, skills or experience that he or she has or claims to have. They must at all times attempt to act peacefully with others. This is their 'duty of care'. The Principal Participant(s) may replace any one of their number, when he or she is not of sound mind, or not capable of carrying out their 'duty of care'.

Discretion and Delegation thereof; Subject always to any express provision to the contrary in these Articles of Association, every discretion vested in the Principal Participant(s) shall be absolute and uncontrolled and every responsibility vested in them shall be exercisable at their absolute and uncontrolled discretion.

They may, in writing, delegate the exercise of any of the responsibilities or discretionary authorities hereby conferred on them, and execute any power of attorney or other instrument necessary to affect such delegation of responsibilities or discretionary authorities.

Liabilities; No Principal Participant(s), and no one exercising the responsibilities that have been delegated by the Principal Participant(s), shall be liable for any act or failure to act unless, in acting or in failing to act, he or she failed to discharge their 'duty of care' or, acted to injure, damage or defraud the Foundation or any natural man, woman or child, or any other party. They shall not be personally responsible for any loss or damage occasioned to the Foundation, or any part thereof, or to any person, by the exercise of any discretion or responsibility, or by any alleged failure to exercise any such discretion or responsibility, conferred herein.

Indemnified; The Principal Participant(s) shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the Foundation Assets, against liabilities incurred by them in the execution or attempted execution, or as a consequence of the failure to exercise any of their authorities, responsibilities and discretions herein conferred, or by virtue of being a Principal Participant(s) hereof.

The Foundation is a Private Foundation and as such operates in privacy, not revealing any of the private information related to its operation to any public or government agency or any purported legal authority. All agreements of any nature between the Foundation, members, Participant(s), Associates, volunteers, contractors and any other foundations and entities, are to be in the private and nominated as such by the use of the words, Private Agreement or Private Information.

Article Eight - Bank Accounts

Any account held with any bank or financial institution in which any of the Foundation Assets are deposited must be operated by the Principal Participant(s) and held in the name of the Foundation. The Principal Participant(s), at their entire discretion, may give written authorisation to other Participant(s) to operate such accounts. Such Bank Accounts should be suitable for not-for-profit organizations.

Article Nine - Private Foundation

The Foundation is a Private Foundation and as such operates privately, not revealing any of the private information related to its operation to any government administrator, state or legal authority. All agreements of any nature between the foundation, principal Participant(s), associates, volunteers, contractors and other foundations and entities, are to remain strictly private and confidential.

Article Ten - Disbursements & Recording

The principal Participant(s) shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation and provide sustenance for all people who render services to the foundation or its enterprises, whether they be Participant(s), volunteers or contractors. The principal Participant(s) shall maintain accurate monthly records of all receipts and expenditures. These records should be consolidated annually and include a list of the Foundation Assets and their values. The principal Participant(s) may make a private copy of these records available privately to any agreed parties.

The records may not to be lodged with any public, government or similar administrative agency. The foundation will have a perpetual period of duration. In the event the principal Participant(s) dissolve this foundation, and/or another Participant(s)/associate does not join, the foundation assets shall be distributed to another similar charity/foundation in keeping with its not-for-profit status. The foundation owns the assets of which the Participant(s) have equal beneficial control.

Article Eleven - Third Parties Reliance

Any natural person or party dealing with the Foundation or its Principal Participant(s) may rely upon a copy of these Articles of Association, endorsed thereon or attached thereto, and certified by a Principal Participant(s),

Non-Government Foundation – Hue-manitarian, Philanthropic, Community-Based Service,
